Preliminary Communication
Assessing hypostasis by colorimetry
by P. Vanezis (London, U.K.) 1–3

Identification of human hair stained with oxidation hair dyes by gas chromatographic-mass spectrometric analysis by N. Tanada, M. Kageura, K. Hara, Y. Hieda, M. Takamoto and S. Kashimura (Fukuoka, Japan) 5–11
A study on house fire victims: age, carboxyhemoglobin, hydrogen cyanide and hemolysis by M. Yoshida, J. Adachi, T. Watabiki, Y. Tatsuno and N. Ishida (Kobe, Japan) 13–20 Preserving electrostatic detection apparatus (ESDA) images: a new approach by O.P. Jasuja and A.K. Singla (Patiala, India) 21–23 Injuries by chicken bills: characteristic wound morphology by P. Roll and F. Rous (Graz, Austria) 25–30
A modified cyanoacrylate technique utilizing treated neutral filter paper for developing latent fingerprints by Z. Jian and G. Dao-an (Beijing, China) 31–34 Non-fatal injuries due to interpersonal violence in Johannesburg – Soweto: incidence, determinants and consequences by A. Butchart and D.S.O. Brown (Pretoria, South Africa) 35–51 Allele frequency distributions of four variable number tandem repeat (VNTR) loci in the London arrea by C. Buffery, F. Burridge, M. Greenhalgh, S. Jones and G. Willott (London, U.K.) 53–64
Evaluation of an enzyme linked immunosorbent assay (ELISA) method for ABO and Lewis typing of body fluids in forensic samples
by K. De Soyza (London, U.K.) 65–76
Blood alcohol concentrations of sudden unexpected deaths and non natural deaths by S.-I. Kubo, G. Dankwarth and K. Püschel (Hamburg, Germany) . 77–84 Autopsied cases of drowning in Denmark 1987–1989
by B. Kringsholm, A. Filskov and K. Kock (Copenhagen, Århus and Odense, Denmark) 85–92 Modifications to sample mounting procedures and microtome equipment for paint sectioning
by T.J. Allen (Reading, U.K.) 93–100
The removal of paint smears from tools and clothing for microscopical examination and analysis by T.J. Allen and B. Schnetz (Reading, U.K. and Lausanne, Switzerland) 101–105 Murder by stabbing
by A.C. Hunt and R.J. Cowling (Plymouth, U.K.) 107–112
Postmortem interval estimation by creatinine levels in human psoas muscle by F. Brion, B. Marc, F. Launay, J. Gaillledreau and M. Durigon (Garches and Paris, France) 113–120

Special Announcement 121
Diary of Future Events 123
Editorial — 1991 Report concerning recommendations of the DNA Commission of the International Society for Forensic Haemogenetics relating to the use of DNA polymorphisms ..... 125 – 130

Comparison of soil samples by high performance liquid chromatography augmented by absorbance ratioing ..... 131 – 142 by D.J. Reuland, W.A. Trinler and M.D. Farmer (Terre Haute, IN) Sex determination of forensic samples by dual PCR amplification of an X-Y homologous gene ..... 143 – 148
by A. Akane, S. Seki, H. Shiono, H. Nakamura, M. Hasegawa, M. Kagawa, K. Matsubara, Y. Nakahori, S. Nagafuchi and Y. Nakagome (Izumo and Tokyo, Japan)
DNA typing of forensic material with mixed genotypes using allele-specific enzymatic amplification (polymerase chain reaction) ..... 149 – 160
by U.B. Gyllensten, A. Josefsson, K. Schemschat, T. Saldeen and U. Petterson (Uppsala, Sweden)
Sudden cardiac death: A comparative study of morphological, histochemical and biochemical methods ..... 161 – 169
by H.P. Hougen, A. Valenzuela, E. Lachica and E. Villanueva (Copenhagen, Denmark and Córdoba, Spain)
The reliability of cardiac haemodilution as a diagnostic test of drowning ..... 171 – 180
by R. Jeanmonod, CH. Staub and B. Mermillod (Genève, Switzerland)
Statistical analysis of the measurement errors in the determination of fragment length in DNA-RFLP analysis ..... 181 – 191
by B. Eriksen, A. Bertelsen and O. Svensmark (Copenhagen, Denmark) Efficacy of cerebro-spinal fluid biochemistry in the diagnosis of brain insult ..... 193 – 198
by E. Osuna, M.D. Perez-Carceles, A. Luna and D.J. Pounder (Murcia, Spain and Dundee, Scotland) Determination of molar absorptivities of radicals of 18 phenothiazine derivatives ..... 199 – 210
by K. Minakata, O. Suzuki, Y. Ishikawa, H. Seno and N. Harada (Hamamatsu, Japan)
Sudden death from secondary massive pulmonary embolism derived from marrow emboli trapped by Chiari's network ..... 211 – 214
by S.T. Yuen and P. Dickens (Hong Kong, Hong Kong) Vomit identification by a pepsin assay using a fibrin blue-agarose gel plate ..... 215 – 221
by S. Yamada, K. Hirata, N. Tsugawa, Y. Bunai and I. Ohya (Gifu, Japan)
Distribution of malathion in body tissues and fluids ..... 223 – 229
by R.K. Jadhav, V.K. Sharma, G.J. Rao, A.K. Saraf and H. Chandra (Bhopal, India) Chloral hydrate overdose: Trichloroethanol detection by gas chromatography/mass spectrometry ..... 231 – 234
by P.F. Heller, B.A. Goldberger and Y.H. Caplan (Baltimore, MD)
